

TWO JAILED FOR SPOTLIGHTING DEER; MISCHIEF

James Edward Baker, 25, and Carroll William Naugle, 29, both of Fayetteville R. 2, were lodged in the county jail Tuesday evening at 7:20 o'clock after pleading guilty to charges of malicious mischief before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder and a game law violation before Justice of the Peace Roger Myers, Fairfield.

The charges were brought by state police and Game Protector Paul Glenn. On the game law violation they were sentenced to 100 days in jail each. On the malicious mischief they waived hearing, pleaded guilty and will be sentenced by the county court.

According to state police, the arrests arose from incidents on the Dwight L. Strausbaugh farm, Orttanna R. D.

Police said the two men were charged with spotlighting deer. The officers said the men would not answer when asked whether they had actually shot any deer.

According to the officers, the malicious mischief charge was based on damage caused when Naugle and Baker drove through a tomato patch and a corn field and damaged 11 young fruit trees. Police said it appeared to them, from the damage, that the men drove up to the fruit trees, put their car in low gear and then drove forward to pull the small trees out by the roots.

TWO ARE INDUCTED

Two men left Gettysburg Tuesday morning for induction into service and 15 left for their pre-induction physical examinations. Those inducted were William M. Burk, Hanover, and Robert G. Smith, Littlestown, who acted as leader. The local draft board reported today that there is no call for inductees for September.

WHIP PARTY IS HELD TUESDAY

Charcoal steaks and "roastin' ears" were served at the annual Exchange Club whip party Tuesday evening on the CCC grounds, Confederate Ave.

Twenty-five members and four guests were present. Guests included James Myers, National Park superintendent; J. L. Wisler, also of the Park Service; Paul L. Roy, editor of The Gettysburg Times; and Dr. Glen Everts, Philadelphia, cousin of Donald Peters.

A moment of silence was observed by the members in memory of President Hartzell's son-in-law, who was killed in an auto accident Saturday, and Carl Prosser's father-in-law, who died recently.

Ralph E. Wills, vice president, presided at the brief business session.

A board of control meeting followed the business session.

Next week's meeting will be held at the Marsh Creek home of member Phil Neth. Old-timers' Night will be the theme.

Robert Gillelan, 70, Emmitsburg, Dies

H. Robert Gillelan, 70, W. Main St., Emmitsburg, well-known livestock dealer, died at the Warner Hospital Tuesday evening at 6:45 o'clock. He had been in declining health for the last five years.

A lifelong resident of Emmitsburg, he was a son of the late Harry and Etta Mae (Shoemaker) Gillelan, and was a member of Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, and of the Masonic Lodge of that community. Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Louise Beam; three daughters and a son, Mrs. A. J. Wood, Finksburg; Mrs. Edward Straub, Baltimore St.; Mrs. Michael Kormanski, Pearl River, N. Y.; and Robert M. Gillelan, Biglerville; ten grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Shuff, Emmitsburg.

Funeral services Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Wilson Funeral Home, Emmitsburg, with the Rev. Philip Bower officiating. Interment in Mountainview Cemetery, Emmitsburg, with Masonic rites. There will be no viewing.

RED CROSS TO SEEK FUNDS NEXT MARCH

The annual drive for funds by the Red Cross in Adams County outside the Gettysburg Community Chest area will be conducted next March, members of the county chapter's board of directors decided Tuesday evening at a meeting at the Student Union Building on the Gettysburg College campus.

In June a proposal had been made that the annual drive for funds be switched from spring to fall. Directors decided Tuesday evening it is too late now to organize a county-wide drive by early October but directed a steering committee to make recommendations later to the board about the timing of the fund drive for 1962.

The Red Cross is a member of the Gettysburg Community Chest and the Chest's share of the Red Cross fund campaign will be sought in the annual Chest fund campaign this fall.

Annual Meeting Sept. 27
The Red Cross is asking $8,500 from the Community Chest in 1961, the same sum requested for the last two years.

Requests from area Red Cross headquarters for revision of the county chapter's contract with the Community Chest here was referred to a special committee for a conference with the Chest authorities.

Tuesday, September 27, was announced as the tentative date for the annual meeting of the county Red Cross chapter. A committee has appointed to arrange for a speaker and the place of meeting.

New Blood Bank Plan
Henry Bloss, area Red Cross representative, will be invited to an early meeting of the chapter's board of directors to discuss plans for operation of a Red Cross blood bank setup under which a blood-

COUNTY WOMAN EXPIRES TODAY

Mrs. Dora E. Alwine Altland, 59, Abbottstown R. 1, died at her home this morning at 12:05 o'clock. She had been bedfast for the past eight weeks, and was in ill health for the past year and one-half.

A daughter of the late Harvey D. and Sara S. Hoffheins Alwine, the deceased was born in Oxford Twp. and was a member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Abbottstown R. 1.

Surviving are her husband, Joseph C. Altland; one daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Butler, Abbottstown, and three grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Isiah F. Hoke, Abbottstown; two brothers, Robert H. Alwine, Hanover R. 2, and Mark H. Alwine, Abbottstown.

Funeral services Saturday, meeting at the Fred A. Feiser Home, New Oxford, at 9:30 a.m., followed by a requiem mass at 10 a.m., in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church with Rev. Fr. Joseph F. Braubitz, celebrant. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the Feiser Funeral Home after 7 o'clock Friday. Prayers will be said at 8 p.m. by Fr. Braubitz.

Square Dance On Thursday At Acme

"The Cannonaders" will be square dancing in the Acme parking lot Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, with Milt Neidinger as the caller. The public is invited as spectators.

A new beginners' class will be started Tuesday, September 13, at 8 p.m., at the Cashtown community fire hall. All couples interested in square dancing are invited to join that class.

Fairfield Lions To Conduct 2 Drives

Approximately 31 members attended the regular meeting of the Fairfield Lions Club, Tuesday evening at Benner's Pool with Club President Rev. Otto Kroeger presiding.

The main topics for discussion were the two fund raising projects which the Lions will get underway next month. They will hold a chicken barbecue on September 3 and the light bulb and broom sale will be conducted September 20.

A. R. Ross, chairman of the Lions' Pony League, announced that all players and managers will attend the Baltimore Orioles-Kansas City Athletics game in Baltimore on August 27. Olmer Spence, chairman of the community park committee, reported that work will begin on the park within a week.

The next and last outdoor meeting of the season will be held September 6 at Benner's.

TRAVEL GROUP SEEKING FUNDS FOR PROMOTION

Gettysburg Travel Council meeting Tuesday evening at the VFW home, E. Middle St., voted to attempt to meet opportunities available for promotion of tourist trade by seeking additional funds from its 115 members.

Letters were sent all members asking additional sums and a committee comprising Marshal Tuckey, William Warren and Paul Witt was appointed to seek new members immediately in order to secure additional funds. The committee will hold a luncheon meeting next Tuesday at noon at the Lamp Post Tea Room and invited the entire membership of the Travel Council to join it in making its plans at that meeting.

"Vastly increased interest" in Gettysburg has caused the Travel Council to go over its budget, President Walter B. Lane reported. Demand from travel centers for folders advertising Gettysburg has exhausted the supply of brochures printed for this year.

Need More Printed Matter
The Pennsylvania Department of Commerce, which has distributed more than a quarter million small advertisements for Gettysburg, has notified Travel Council it can use "thousands more."

Similar requests have come in from Connecticut and New York agencies wishing literature for distribution. A request from the New Jersey Turnpike for literature resulted in sending 1,500 folders which were quickly snapped up by tourists. Similarly 1,800 were sent to Corning Glass Works for inclusion in their display of places to visit. The council provided folders for the Shell Touring Service and received word more were needed. Similarly the Humble Touring Service, Houston, Texas, used 300 and asked for more.

President Lane explained: "The thousands of brochures we send out annually reach only a fraction of the potential. These agencies

Francis Gary Powers Pleads Guilty To Charge Of Espionage In Moscow Court; Regrets Making U2 Flight Over Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—Francis Gary Powers told a Soviet military court today that he is sorry he had anything to do with his U2 flight over the Soviet Union.

Powers pictured himself as a $30,000-a-year spy who disliked his job and knew little if anything about the camera and recording equipment his plane was carrying on its May 1 flight. He said a superior officer had assured him it was safe to fly over the Soviet Union.

At the outset of his trial the American pilot, 31 today, pleaded guilty. He then underwent more than four hours of questioning by Soviet prosecutor Roman A. Rudenko before he was turned over for quizzing by the Soviet attorney assigned to defend him.

"Sincerely Sorry"
This attorney, Mikhail Griniov, brought out that Powers was from a working class family. He questioned the pilot on how he felt about the effects of the U2 incident.

Powers testified that he had "heard that as a direct result of my flight the summit conference did not take place and Eisenhower's visit was cancelled."

"I suppose it increased tension in the world," he said. "I am sincerely sorry I had anything to do with it."

Treated "Very Nice"
Powers' grief-stricken wife and parents looked on as he testified he had not been tortured but treated "very nice" during 117 days in Soviet custody.

Powers is being tried on espionage charges. He can be sentenced to 7-15 years in prison—or to death. His trial will resume Thursday before the military section of the Soviet Supreme Court.

It is taking place before the lights of Soviet television cameras in the Hall of Columns, site of the purge trials of the 30s.

The prosecutor tried to prove that Powers knew of the espionage nature of his work.

"I was just a pilot," insisted Powers.

But he admitted at one point that he knew his flight had to do with gaining intelligence of the Soviet Union.

He told the court step-by-step of his progress from an Air Force pilot to a pilot of the high-flying U2.

Then in the dawn of May 1 he left Pakistan on the flight which

4 TEACHERS RETURN HOME

Miss Jean Biggs, Orttanna, president, and Miss Evelyn Orner, Arendtsville, were among four teachers from the local Delta Kappa Gamma Society, who attended the fourth general convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society at Bal Harbour, Fla., last week. The four-day sessions ended Saturday.

The other delegates from the local chapter were Miss Beulah Whitmore and Miss Estella Whitmore, Mercersburg. The local teachers spent 10 days on the trip and included vacation time at Miami Beach and Key West.

More than 2,000 women teachers attended the convention and heard Mrs. Margaret Konantz, Winnipeg, Manitoba, describe her visit to Asia on assignment for the United Nations Association in Winnipeg. She said more than 50 million mothers and children in many parts of the world are getting more nutritious food through the U. N. than they did 10 years ago.

Awards Presented
A highlight of the convention was the awarding at the birthday luncheon last Thursday of 56 scholarships for graduate study valued at $2,500 each. Miss June E. Baskin, Williamsport, received the Pennsylvania scholarship and will study at Penn State University.

The society's biennial educator's award of $1,000 was presented to Dr. Blanche Jefferson, assistant professor of art at the University of Pittsburgh, for her book "Teaching Art to Children."

Dr. Anne Gary Pannell, president of Sweet Briar College in Virginia, was the main speaker at the presidents' and founders' banquet Saturday evening, concluding the convention. Her subject was "Great Teachers."

ATTENDS CONFERENCE
R. K. Will, manager of the Murphy Store, is attending the semi-annual managers' conference in McKeesport, Pa. During his absence the assistant manager will be in charge of the store and will conduct the semi-annual assistant manager's sale beginning at 9 a.m. Friday.

brought him 1,200 miles into the heart of the Soviet Union before he was downed.

"It was a flight I was told to take," he said. "I was not asked whether I wanted to take it or not."

He was asked if he could have refused to go.

"No, I could not refuse. By refusing I would have been considered a coward by my associates and it would have been on fulfillment of the contract," he replied.

Assured It Was "Safe"
This contract, he said, brought him $2,500 a month.

He said he had never had any administrative or leadership function in the "Ten-Ten" reconnaissance group working out of Turkey and had not helped plan any missions.

His job, he insisted, was to fly along the southern frontier of the Soviet Union from bases in Turkey and finally to make the flight over the Soviet Union itself.

He said he had been assured by a Colonel Shelton, commander of the reconnaissance group to which he was attached, that it was "absolutely safe" to fly over the Soviet Union. He said he had never before flown over the country nor visited it.

"I Was Scared"
Denying any knowledge of the equipment his plane carried, he

Lively String Sessions Mark "Music Meet"

The American String Teachers Association is a pretty formidable label. And at last reports Americans were rock-rolling to cellos, violas or string basses. Indeed, the whole idea of long-hair violin virtuosos wielding bows on a Handel-Halvorsen "Passacaglia" during the "dog days" seems a pretty frightening experience.

Yet curious citizens who have wandered into Brua Hall to witness one of the sessions of the ASTA workshop or attended one of the evening recitals open to the public have been pretty much impressed. For the experts dart about like nervous birds gesticulating, coaching students from nine to 59 in sly techniques to coax melody out of a violin, displaying nothing either very long-haired or very temperamental.

Brua Hall seems a cheery place, ringing with music, full of talk and good humor, marked by excitement and enthusiasm on the part of both teaching experts and pupils. A good deal is being accomplished and a lot of hard work is being carried on as the ten music masters, clad generally in colorful sports shirts, teach techniques, drill string orchestras, gather in small ensembles, and sometimes argue as formally over a technical question as Henry Cabot Lodge at the U.N.

Evening Recitals
Evening sessions are highlighted by recitals which give weighty evidence to the contention of Dr.

Bring Elmo Smith Here On Thursday

Elmo Smith, accused of the slaying of a Philadelphia school girl, will be brought to Gettysburg Thursday. His trial in the death of Maryann Mitchell starts here Monday.

President Judge William E. Dannewer issued an order August 5 that Smith should be taken to the Adams County jail not less than four days before his trial starts.

Smith, 40, a parolee, was granted a charge of venue on the grounds that he would not receive a fair trial in Norristown because of adverse publicity. The body of 16-year-old Maryann was found in a muddy roadside ditch last December.

Eisenhower Hopes For Action From Congress

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower declared today there is no reason why there shouldn't be a lot of action out of Congress in its pre-election session.

Eisenhower told a news conference that Congress once had passed 436 bills in two weeks.

Congress can do what needs to be done, the President said firmly.

In response to a question, he said he had not heard the expression that the Democratic-dominated national legislature is a "do little Congress."

said his only job was to make it work under certain circumstances according to instructions.

He said: "I didn't like the idea of the flight. I was very nervous and tense. It is hard to explain. But I was scared."

Powers said he never saw any of the U2's equipment loaded or unloaded.

The pilot said he had hesitated about renewing his contract to work for a U.S. government agency, and had renewed it only because he did not have time to find another job.

Pressed By Attorney
"Why were you sorry you renewed your contract," he was asked by his goateed defense lawyer.

"Why were you penitent?" "The reasons are hard to explain," Powers said. "The work was strenuous and I had a feeling—I can't put it into words—I didn't particularly like what I was doing."

"Why are you sorry now?" the lawyer persisted.

Never In Politics
With a wry expression on his face, Powers said: "The situation I am in right now is not too good. I haven't heard too much of the news of the world since I have been in."

But he said he learned of the end of the summit conference and of the cancellation of the Eisenhower visit.

Powers said that on completion of service with the Air Force he had wanted to go into civil aviation but could not find a job. He told of working in his spare time at college, and said he had never engaged in politics.

Knew Of Spying
The defense attorney introduced pictures he said had been supplied by Powers' family showing how the pilot grew up and the house where he lived—all, apparently, in an effort to depict Powers as a normal person.

Dr. Tilberg Heads ULCA Committee

Dr. W. E. Tilberg, W. Lincoln Ave., chairman of the nominating committee for the 1960 Atlantic City convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, left today for Pittsburgh where the 19 members of his committee will be in session Thursday and Friday at the Pittsburgh-Hilton Hotel. The ULCA convention will be held in October.

The committee, made of Lutheran clergy and laymen from many parts of the nation, will propose names for positions on the executive board of the ULCA and the boards of foreign missions, American missions, social missions, deaconess work, pension, higher education, parish education, publication and the committee on the church paper.

Dr. Viggo Swenson, Harrisburg, is the only other member of the committee from this area.

Democrats Prepare Registration Drive

Approximately 400 Adams County Democrats heard Congressman James Quigley, candidate for re-election; William O. Shuman and Dale E. Clark, candidates for the state Senate and General Assembly respectively, urge the necessity of an all-out registration campaign for the fall elections.

Adams County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk presided at the meeting at the American Legion home Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock and plans were formulated for the registration drive. Reports were heard from chairman Ernest Unger and co-chairmen Emory Hammer and M. G. Miller of the committee on registration.

HERSH NAMED SUPERVISOR OF ASSESSMENTS

The Adams County Commissioners today announced the appointment of Henry M. Hersh, New Oxford, as supervisor of assessments under Chief Assessor D. Walker Woods.

The commissioners at their meeting in the court house this morning said approximately 50 per cent of Hersh's duties would involve working with the local assessors to help them reach equitable assessments within their territories.

Appointment of Hersh, a former county auditor and more recently a census supervisor in this area, is one of several steps taken to expedite completion of the assessment work of the county, the commissioners said. With only the chief assessor on duty, the constant office calls and the job of working with the local assessors, plus the work of taking off the measurements for the more than 18,000 properties in the county from the various deeds, prevented rapid plotting of the properties on the maps of the county. With the appointment of Hersh to take over some of the load and with assistance by commissioners' clerks, the chief assessor has been given more time to carry out the work of plotting the various properties on the maps, as required by the assessment regulations set up by the state.

Twin Oaks Problem
The problems of equal assessment for all were described by the commissioners this morning as "almost insoluble, but we hope to keep them as equal as between properties of equal value as possible." The comment came during a discussion with John R. Snyder and William Bigham of Twin Oaks development. Their problem was one brought them by owners of property there, who complained of inequalities of assessments in comparison to similar properties which had been built a few years ago. The commissioners held to their view that 25 per cent of purchase price is still the only workable way to assess properties.

Can't Re-assess Yearly
At the same time they admitted it worked an inequality against the owner of the new houses, because the house nearby built several years ago may have increased in value since it was assessed at the 25 per cent of its purchase price. Snyder said the cost of house building has increased "about 20 per cent" over the last several years.

The commissioners pointed out that "there are too many properties to reassess the whole county each year," and held the inequalities would be made up in three years when it comes time to reassess each area. Under the plan of the commissioners ap-

Miss Klunk Joins Staff Of Nurses

Miss Rosalie J. Klunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, has accepted a position as a registered nurse on the Warner Hospital staff.

Miss Klunk was graduated August 4 from the St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing, Lancaster, and received the Florence Nightingale Nursing Award. It is the highest award issued by the school. Miss Klunk also received the government award in the field of psychiatry. She is a 1957 graduate of the Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown.

Skeptics are cordially invited to attend either the evening recitals, such as this evening's at 8:45 o'clock which features four members of the staff playing Hadyn, Beethoven and Handel-Halvorsen, or one of the work sessions during the day.

Thursday's "faculty funfest" is top secret at this point, but Dr. Van Sickle promises a flock of musical capers, some in fun, some serious, guaranteed to delight listeners . . . a sort of musical free-for-all carried out by experts.

This afternoon Boyd Barnard of the Theodore Presser Foundation of Philadelphia, co-sponsors with Gettysburg College of the conferences, will attend the sessions. With him will come Theodore Seder, curator of the Fleisch Memorial Music Library, Philadelphia, and one of the world's great bassoon players, Sol Sollenbach.

proximately one-third of the county is reassessed each year. In the long run, the commissioners said, each person would be equalized because while higher now he obviously would have a relatively lower assessment as compared to new homes in his area during a coming three-year period.

All of the commissioners agreed they "would like to have a better workable formula." Bigham and Snyder at the conclusion of the discussion seemed agreed that only relative equality can be secured and that the procedure used is "about the only one that can work."

The commissioners appointed Mrs. Laura Cratin and Curtis J. Groft, both of McSherrystown, as the traveling registrars who will tour the county starting August 22 to register those who wish to vote in the November election. Mrs. Cratin is a Democrat and Groft a Republican. Elmer Gruver was appointed alternate in case of absence of either of the registrars.

Commissioners Clerks Crosby N. Hartzell and Ray J. Snyder were appointed to "fill in" at any evening sessions when the number of persons wishing to register would exceed the amount that could be handled by two registrars.

This afternoon the commissioners were visiting bridges as part of an annual inspection.

PEN-MAR BASEBALL LOOP

Announcement was made today by Alton Waterfield, president of the Pen-Mar Baseball League, that the title playoff best-of-five series between Taneytown, first half champs, and Fairfield, second half titlists, will open Sunday, August 28, at 2 p.m. at Taneytown.

The sites of the games will alternate until the champion is decided.

Mrs. Glenn Bream Wins Tournament

Thirty-three women participated in the Ladies' Day low net handicapped golf tournament held Tuesday at the Gettysburg Country Club.

Mrs. Glenn L. Bream took top honors with a low net 33. Other leading performers were: Second, Mrs. George Bender, 36; third, Mrs. Edwin Minter, 37; fourth, Mrs. Robert Davies and Mrs. Robert Kenworthy, 39.

Mrs. Roy Gifford and Mrs. Mares Sherman were the hostesses.

Next Tuesday an inter-club match will be held with Chambersburg on the Scotland course.

DRIVER CHARGED

Clarence H. Trovinger Jr., 20, of Clark Hotel, New Oxford, was arrested by Hanover police for reckless driving after his auto and another car collided at an intersection Tuesday at 4 p.m. No one was injured. Police said the other car was operated by Gerald R. Zumburn, 16, of Hanover R. 3. Total damage was estimated by police at $500.

YOUTH BREAKS ARM

Larry Garland, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Garland, Littlestown R. 2, was treated Tuesday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the left arm received in a fall from a tree.

Roger Kuykendall, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Kuykendall, Fairfield R. 1, received treatment Tuesday for a snake bite to the left foot.

Lawrence Urges Need Of Interest

HARRISBURG (AP) — Young people should develop an interest in government and civic responsibility, says Gov. Lawrence.

Addressing a youth conference in suburban Camp Hill Tuesday, the governor added:

ers to the court as a member of the working classes.

Under questioning by the prosecution, Powers denied knowing what U. S. agency was in charge of his U2.

"I think you did not doubt it was a spy flight," observed Prosecutor Rudenko.

Red Mark On Face
"No, I don't think I doubted it," Powers responded.

The defendant wore a civilian suit and appeared well except for a red mark on his face.

His voice was firm but grew tired toward the end of the four-hour morning session.

Listening from a box in the rear of the courtroom were his wife and parents. A Russian nurse was with them as well as their own doctors from home. Powers, diagonally across the huge room and blinded by television lights, probably could not see them.

The family seldom took their eyes from the witness stand.

Read Long Indictment
Powers asserted he didn't know whether his flight was under military auspices. He said a colonel named Shelton was in charge of the outfit but that the rest of the group were civilians.

At the start of the trial a 4,000-word indictment drawn up by Soviet prosecutors, and previously made public, was read.

Asked then how he pleaded, Powers said:

"Yes, I plead guilty."
Powers' voice was high-pitched but calm, and he seemed in full control of himself.

The fierier wife, Barbara, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Powers of Pound, Va., sat in a special box at the rear of the huge hall and heard him enter the plea which could—but probably won't—bring him a death sentence.

First Yank Spy Trial
It was the first time any American had ever been tried on spy charges in a Soviet court, and the Soviet government announced it would also convict the whole foreign policy of the United States.

Powers appeared to be in good health and showed no signs of nervousness. He wore a single-breasted navy blue suit and a dark red necktie. His hair was crewcut and he carried into the prisoner's box a light blue cardboard folder which apparently contained material for his defense. There was a red mark on his left jaw just under the ear, possibly the after-effect of an injury sustained when he parachuted May 1 from his high-flying jet 1,200 miles inside Soviet territory.

31 Years Old Today

At the outset of the hearing before three military judges Powers answered routine, factual questions about his birthplace and birth date—he is 31 today—his family background and his education.

Then came the reading of the long indictment and then, with surprising rapidity, the plea.

"Have you heard and understood the charges against you?" asked the presiding judge, Lt. Gen. Viktor V. Borisoglebsky.

"Yes," Powers replied after rising in the prisoner's box.

"Do you acknowledge that you are guilty?" the judge continued from his high-backed chair beneath the hammer and sickle emblem of the Soviet Union.

"Yes, I plead guilty."

"Be seated," said the judge.

There was a stir throughout the audience and the judge declared a recess for 20 minutes.

The plea of guilty came as no surprise, for the indictment previously published — said Powers had pleaded guilty to flying over Soviet territory, turning on and off special equipment aboard his plane, and believed this "was done with the aim of collecting intelligence information about the Soviet Union."

Refuse Family Plea

Powers' appearance in court was his family's first sight of him since before his ill-fated flight. They arrived in Moscow last weekend but the Soviets refused to permit them to see him. Repeated requests from the U.S. Embassy to interview the flier also were refused.

Powers' eyes raked the audience of 1,500 as he entered the courtroom, apparently seeking his family. But he clearly did not find them, for at no time did he look at their box under the rear balcony.

The Kremlin launched the trial in a blazing spotlight of publicity, focusing new attention on the ill-fated reconnaissance flight over Soviet territory which Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave as his reason for breaking up the May summit conference in Paris.

cies ask for thousands and we send hundreds. They need thousands because they need that many for distribution.

"If we could raise enough money to print literature by the hundreds of thousands instead of the tens of thousands we could reach many more people. Not everyone who receives a folder from us comes to Gettysburg, but we can be sure that if they don't receive a folder there will be much less likelihood of their coming."

Set Record Monday

Increased attendance at the Information Center on Carlisle St. has also required additional help, thus exceeding the budget for its operation. Monday the center had its biggest day with 1,000 persons using the office. During July, 20,297 visitors comprising 5,332 parties were at the information center compared to 15,286 in 4,005 parties during July a year ago.

Plans were made for a meeting with representatives of other travel groups in South Central Pennsylvania Monday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg. Among matters to be discussed at that meeting are participation of the Gettysburg-York-Lancaster-Carlisle-Hershey travel groups as a unit in the International Travel Shows at Toronto, Canada, and New York, and joint promotion of the south central area as "the place to spend your vacation."

Preliminary plans were discussed for fall programming to attract tourist visitation here during October and November.

IKE BLAZES AT RED CLAIM ON U2 TRIAL

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower indignantly rejected today Russia's contention that the United States is on trial along with U2 pilot Francis G. Powers. He called it a distortion of the facts.

The President told a news conference that evidence by Powers so far does not indicate he has been brainwashed.

Eisenhower protested against Russia's refusal to let any U.S. Embassy official or other American government representative see the film whose reconnaissance plane went down in central Russia May 1.

Deny Rights

Under international usage and custom, Eisenhower told a news conference, a foreigner accused of crime is accorded the right to see a representative of his own government, but the Russians denied Powers that right.

He said in discussing the case at the very outset of his conference that he did not wish to comment in detail on the trial or the charges against Powers, because that might not be helpful to the fier.

CODE VIOLATORS

The following have forfeited fines in Westminster on motor code violation charges: Richard A. Ott, Emmitsburg, $11.45, exceeding 50 miles per hour; William F. Austin, Taneytown, $6.45, exceeding 25 miles; Edward A. Cluck, Littlestown, $6.45, speed too great; Richard F. Wisotzky, $6.45, speed greater than reasonable.

FILES TRESPASS ACTION

A trespass action for $800 damages has been started in Common Pleas Court, York, by Schmuck Company Inc., Hanover, against Earl M. Borror, East Berlin R. 2, and Earl E. Zeigler, East Berlin. The suit is an aftermath of a collision last Oct. 29 near Codorus between trucks operated by Paul J. Topper, a Schmuck employee, and Zeigler, employed by Borror.

HOME BURGLARIZED

State police today reported a burglary Sunday evening at the home of Luther Hess, Littlestown R. 1. Police said burglars broke into the Hess home while the family was away by entering through a rear window. The intruders searched the house and left with a camera valued at $60 and $15 in currency.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Leaders in attendance were Mrs. Helen Tunison, Adams County home economics extension representative; Mrs. C. Aaron Rohrbaugh, Mrs. Wade H. Brown and Mrs. Emory C. Gitt. The summer sewing projects and books were checked by the leaders.

The 4-H members will attend the 4-H Roundup on Friday starting at 9:30 a.m. at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. Those wishing transportation should contact Mrs. Rohrbaugh, and each should take a box lunch. Five members of the local club will be chosen to help serve the evening meal. Parents are invited to attend the evening program. Each girl should wear the skirt or dress she made as a summer project.

The annual picnic of Centenary Methodist Sunday School will be held on Saturday, August 27, at Hershey Heights. The evening meal will be enjoyed at 5 p.m. Each family should take place settings, sandwiches and a covered dish to pass. Ice cream and soft drinks will be furnished. There will be swimming until 7 p.m. The affair will be held rain or shine.

mobile would come here at intervals from Baltimore and Philadelphia so that Adams Countians could gain "blood bank credit" for use of blood in any part of the country or anywhere abroad where Red Cross blood is available.

Approval of the Warner Hospital and the county medical society for the new blood program will be sought.

About 800 persons are expected to benefit by the Red Cross summer swimming classes which got underway recently, the board was told. Postponement of the classes due to the unavailability of a pool earlier in the summer cut the classes from an original enrollment of about 1,100, it was stated.

Reports Presented

From 130 to 160 were taught daily in the first Red Cross swim classes, Miss Helen Strieby told the board. The junior and senior life saving classes have been scheduled in the evening this week and next at the Battlefield pool because morning classes were too large, it was explained.

There was a report on services by nurses' aids at the firemen's carnival here and at the Hoffman home anniversary in addition to continuing regular duties at the Warner Hospital.

The home service report showed 242 office visits during June and July and special service to nine active servicemen and their families, five veterans and six civilian families. There were eight verifications for servicemen seeking emergency leaves.

Chapter Chairman Charles E. Held presided at the meeting with 18 directors in attendance.

Small Bonanza Payoffs At Downs

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va.

Wayne Kenrick's New Occupy will seek his first win of the Shenandoah Downs summer meeting tonight, dropping down a notch in class to engage six older horses in the 1 1/16 mile Lions Club Purse, feature of the midweek program.

Shenandoah got back into business Tuesday night after the cancellation caused by rains with its smallest bonanza payoffs since introducing pool wagering July 5. The little bonanza was the third smallest price on the board paying $4.80 to a whopping 876 fans who had four winners each. The Big Bonanza was $81.20 going to 123 fans with five correct selections.

A Tuesday crowd of 5,100 bet $255,663, up about $5,000 from what Shenandoah was doing against competition at Delaware Park. The night track is getting its first test with local competition this week with the Cumberland-Timonium under way, and track officials are hoping the handle will revert to the $300,000-plus averaged against the Delaware mile.

TOUR SHOE COMPANY

The Town and Country Business Club held its Key Visit on "By Products" Tuesday morning at the Hanover Shoe, Inc., in Hanover. The group toured the facilities under the direction of Raymond Belz. The entire operation of making a shoe was viewed.

Monday afternoon four members of the club appeared on WGAL, Lancaster television station, to tell of their experiences in the club. They were: Larry and Shirley Bair, Littlestown R. 2; Mary Jane Bowman, McSherrystown, and David Slusser, Littlestown, R. 1.

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Venezuela prepared today to ask Western Hemisphere foreign ministers for a history-making quarantine of the Dominican Republic. The Dominicans promised a counterblast of their own at the foreign ministers' conference of American States, which opened Tuesday night.

A sharp split seemed to be developing among other foreign ministers on what to do about the Venezuelan-Dominican dispute, in which Venezuela has charged the regime of Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo with masterminding an assassination attempt on Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt.

Wants Sanctions

Diplomatic informants said Venezuela had ready a draft resolution asking the invoking of all sanctions in the 1947 Rio Treaty short of armed intervention. The treaty says the ministers, by a two-thirds vote, can suspend diplomatic relations and impose communications bans, but this has never happened.

Dominican Foreign Minister Porfirio Herrera denied the Venezuelan charges and said in a news conference he had some surprise testimony and proof of his own to submit.

Bream's Dam Dedicated By

County Sportsmen: Built to conserve water and to provide recreational activities for sportsmen, Bream's dam, located in Marsh Creek about two and one-half miles from Gettysburg on the Fairfield road, was dedicated Friday afternoon and evening at a picnic in the grove adjoining the dam by more than 200 members and friends of the Adams County Fish and Game association.

Construction of the dam started in October, 1934, under the sponsorship of the county association. Although it is valued at $2,000, the expense to the association was only $400, the cost of the materials used. The remainder of the cost represents the labor which was supplied by C.C.C. enrollees from the camps on the battlefield. The county sportsmen acknowledged several donations from interested groups and individuals while the dam was being constructed.

To Discuss Local Traffic: The Gettysburg Rotary club will hold a round table discussion of local traffic conditions at its weekly meeting, Monday evening, in the Y.W.C.A., center square. The topics to be discussed include stop sign blinkers, lights and the regulation and control of speeding. Plans for the Rotary picnic also will be announced Monday evening.

Convention Group Wants Room Data: The committee in charge of lodging for the post office clerks' convention which opens here next Saturday has asked all lodging house proprietors to communicate with any of its members relative to the number of rooms they have available for lodgers during the convention.

Civil War Veteran Is Seriously Ill After Car Hits Pole: W. Henry Gilbert, one of York county's most famed Civil War veterans, is seriously ill at his home in Craley. The aged man, who is in his ninety-fourth year, is suffering from bruises and shock sustained Thursday in a slight automobile accident at Wrightsville.

Maroon and White To Be Enlarged: Keeping pace with the growth of Gettysburg High school, the "Maroon and White," student publication, will be enlarged this year from four to six pages. There will be 12 issues instead of nine, as in previous years. Another innovation will be publication of the first issue on the opening day of school, September 3.

Patrol Escorts Troops To Camp: Patrolmen from the local substation have been busy most of the week escorting army trucks carrying men to Indian town Gap and Mt. Gretna for the largest peace-time concentration of troops in the state since the World War.

Every morning for the past seven or eight days local patrolmen have been meeting the motorcade at the Mason Dixon line, on the Emmitsburg road, and escorting them to the National Guard camp.

Plane Speeds Bodies Of Rogers, Post Homeward: Point Barrow, Alaska — Wrapped in snow white linen, the bodies of Will Rogers and Wiley Post early today were placed aboard an airplane piloted by Joe Crosson ready for the flight across Endicott Mountains to Fairbanks. A dozen white settlers and a crowd of Eskimos gathered on the desolate Arctic shore while the bodies were laid in the ship.

Today's Talk

THE BIRDS STILL SING

Much of this world threatens its way behind the shadows of an age-old tradition, confused and full of terror. History is being tutored by civilizations older than we know. There is a cry of "peace, peace!"—but there is no peace. Is this a real civilization about to give up its charter? Disturbances are at every crossway—and yet the birds still sing.

The birds' world is a happy one wrapped up in hopes, but not fears. Have these birds a platform of their own? How sweet and brave is every bird that sweeps the atmosphere clean with its song! How much we can learn about each. I wonder if republics (outside their own) mean anything to these birds? Their only activity is to sing and to enhance our happiness.

The Bible says that God makes note of the sparrow's fall. God's love, therefore, must mean a great deal. Perhaps it may mean our own salvation! How Nature thrives when let alone! Have not such lovers of the birds, the minor animals and the flowers, exemplified by W. H. Hudson, John Burroughs, Edwin Way Teale, John Muir and an endless procession of writers, given us lessons far better than any warrior? Listen—the birds still sing!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Belonging." Protected, 1960, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

SORROW'S SWEET

Oh, there's naught so sweet as sorrow
When the sting has passed away;
In the roseate tomorrow
You look back on yesterday.Viewing life in its completeness
With a joy that's all your own,
As you sip the sacred sweetness
Of the griefs that you have known.For there is no tenderer token
Of the faith that you have kept,
Of your sacred vows unbroken,
Than the tears that you have wept.For two hearts are scarce united Till in sorrow they have met;
And your throats again are plighted
As your eyes with tears are wet.For the truest love is founded
On a little grave out there
By the whispering trees
surrounded.In God's holy, fragrant air,
For where hearts have shared a sorrow
All adown life's lane of years,
They've a bliss for each tomorrow
That can only come with tears.

JEFF FARRELL IS ADDED TO MEDLEY TEAM

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
ROME (AP)—An expected Soviet attempt to wrest control of the International Olympic Committee and the probable addition of the freestyle swimming star, Jeff Farrell, to the U.S. medley relay team held the attention of Olympic fans today.

Farrell's eligibility for the medley, virtually assuring the potent Yank tank forces of a gold medal in this new Olympic event, caused more stir among the athletes than the behind-the-scenes maneuvers of the Soviets and their satellites in the political field.

The athletes themselves couldn't care less about the political side of this Rome Olympic season. The weather was sunny, food was good and plentiful and their quarters excellent.

LA Minus Smog

"This is just like Los Angeles without the smog," commented swimmer Lance Larson from El Monte, Calif.

Farrell, the world's fastest swimmer this year until he underwent an emergency appendectomy just before the American swimming and diving trials at Detroit, Aug. 2-5, found himself in the running for the berth of the medley team.

He must beat Bruce Hunter of Cambridge, Mass., in a swimoff for the freestyle leg of the race which calls for 100 meters each by a backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly man and freestyle.

Should Win

Farrell, in fine condition now, should win with ease.

In the political field, the Soviets are aiming to elect their own Constantine Andrianov, or another of the Iron Curtain officials, to succeed resigning Avery Brundage of Chicago as president of the International Olympic Committee.

It does not look as if they will succeed. Observers believe England's Lord Burghley, a one-time Olympic hurdling champion, will be chosen as the compromise candidate.

The election is one of the major issues on the agenda of the IOC meeting, opening Friday.

Other topics, which will bring on heated debate and probably little action, include the thorny issue of amateurism, and cutbacks in the ever increasing magnitude of the games.

Dick Harlow Has

Second Stroke

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Mercy Hospital reported today that Dick Harlow, a member of the Football Hall of Fame and the Helms Foundation, "is not out of danger but has improved slightly" after suffering a second stroke Tuesday.

A supervisor said the 69-year-old Harlow "is holding his own and is in fair condition."

Harlow, who played his football at Penn State from 1908 to 1912 and later coached there and at Colgate, Western Maryland and Harvard, was admitted to the hospital Aug. 4 after suffering a heart attack.

He has been retired for several years. Since retirement he has time at his summer home in La Anna in northeastern Pennsylvania.

Whitey Ford Beats Orioles On 3-hitter; Cleveland And White Sox Chalk Up Wins

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
First Mickey Mantle, now Whitey Ford. The New York Yankees, long a bunch of marauders who struck en masse against the challengers, have come battling back in the American League race on two fine one-man performances.

The Yanks looked about as bad as any pennant contender can look when they were plunked out of first place by a doubleheader loss to Washington Sunday.

Mantle was yanked out of the second game for failing to run out a ground ball.

Mantle, pricked by pride, put 'em back on top with a pair of two-run homers that beat Baltimore 4-3 Monday night.

Ford Beats Birds

Ford kept them there Tuesday. Working with just two days rest at his own request, the scrappy southpaw came through with his second straight three-hit, 1-0 decision as the Yankees swept the two-game series and dropped the Orioles from first to third.

Ford's performance, backed by a hit batter and singles by Yogi Berra and Johnny Blanchard for a fourth-inning run, kept the Yankees a half-game ahead of the Chicago White Sox. The defending champs defeated Detroit 3-2 with two unearned runs in the eighth inning. Cleveland beat Kansas City 4-3 in 10 innings, and Washington rapped Boston 8-5.

Ford, who beat Washington 1-0 Saturday, took some of the pressure off the Yankees' strained pitching staff with his quick comeback. He gave up a leadoff double by Jackie Brandt, then outduelled Chouh Estrada (13-7) by allowing only a fourth-inning single by Gene Woodling and an infield hit by Ron Hansen in the seventh.

Senators Fight Back

A double steal by Jim Landis, who had singled, and Nellie Fox, who beat out a bunt, set up the winning eighth for the White Sox, drawing a bad throw by Tiger catcher Harry Chitt. Al Smith's 11th home run had given the Sox a 1-all tie in the second against suffering a second stroke Tuesday.

A supervisor said the 69-year-old Harlow "is holding his own and is in fair condition."

Harlow, who played his football at Penn State from 1908 to 1912 and later coached there and at Colgate, Western Maryland and Harvard, was admitted to the hospital Aug. 4 after suffering a heart attack.

He has been retired for several years. Since retirement he has time at his summer home in La Anna in northeastern Pennsylvania.

Olympic Swim Team Victory Seems Certain

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
ROME (AP)—American youth and depth may return Olympic Games swimming supremacy to the United States after a titanic struggle with the reigning Australians and improving Japanese. This is one of the major sports in which the powerful Russians are completely overshadowed.

A survey of past and recent performances shows that the United States has a chance to win seven of the 10 men's swimming and diving gold medals and six of the women's nine events. The Yanks won five in 1956.

Swimming will be the first major sport to be contested at the coming games. The opening ceremonies are Aug. 25 and swimming takes over the main stage in the morning of the next day. The tank frolics will be concluded on Saturday night, Sept. 3.

Aussie Team

Australia, dominant in the 1956 games at home, could wind up with just four gold medals compared to eight won at Melbourne. The Australian men, headed by triple gold medalist Murray Rose, swept the boards in the freestyle and captured the backstroke for five gold medals four years ago. The women, spearheaded by Dawn Fraser and Lorraine Crapp, took three titles in the freestyle.

Japan, improving year by year and striving to regain pre-war honors, has its best hopes for gold medals in breaststroke Yoshihiko Osaki, freestyler Tsuyoshi Yamakana, silver medalist in the 40 and 1500 in 1956, and female backstroke Satoka Tanaka.

The Germans with world-record breaker Wiltrud Urselmann in the women's breaststroke; the Dutch with a batch of fine female freestroke, breaststroke and backstroke, and the British with freestyler Ian Black and female backstroke Natalie Steward, could pick up a few gold medals.

In the overall picture, the Yanks are the favorites in the men's and women's butterfly, backstroke, medley relays and both springboard and platform diving and potent threats in the freestyle. The Australians are outstanding, as usual in the freestyle and backstroke.

MARTY MARION QUILTS AS PREXY

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Marty Marion has resigned as president and director of the Houston Buffs and the Houston club has bought Marion's stock.

W. H. Hopkins, chairman of the Buff's Major League Committee, made the announcement at a press conference Tuesday.

Hopkins said major league sources told him Houston will have a better chance for a major league franchise if the club is owned and operated by Houston area persons.

He said Marion's resignation is effective immediately and the ex-St. Louis Cardinal has already returned to his St. Louis home.

Russian Pioneer Schools Start Training Athletes For Olympic Medals At 6

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
MOSCOW (AP)—The young pioneers school is an incubator of future sports champions located on the outskirts of Moscow near the famed Dynamo Stadium.

It is a complete athletic plant, a teen-ager's dream, one of 30 children's sports schools in this city aimed at speeding gifted young sons and daughters of the Soviet toward athletic greatness.

The enrollees: Boys and girls from 6 to 18. The subjects: Nothing but sports, track and field, gymnastics, cycling, skiing, fencing, etc.

GIANTS PICK FULLBACK

WINOOSKI PARK, Vt. (AP)—

The New York Giants, aiming for a more diversified offense, have a new No. 1 fullback today as they enter their final week of training before setting up quarters closer to New York.

Joe Morrison, in his second year with the National Football League's Eastern Conference champions, will take over as Coach Jim Lee Howell, after he turned in yeoman work in Monday night's 16-7 exhibition loss to the Chicago Bears in Toronto.

"Morrison played a good game," Howell said. "He has the fullback spot to himself now so we'll go offensively with (Frank) Gifford and (Alex) Webster."

The former University of Cincinnati player spent most of his rookie year spelling the two, and also put in some time in the fullback slot. This year Howell decided to keep him at fullback, behind the veteran Mel Triplett.

But Triplett injured a knee earlier in the training season and has been hobbling around on crutches. He is not expected to resume full-scale work until late this month, or sometime next month, depending on how well the knee responds to treatment.

It is estimated there are fewer than 1,000 grizzly bears in the United States.

The Soviet-style children's sports school has no counterpart in the United States.

It is for sports strictly. There is no other curriculum. The children do not live on the premises. They attend regular school and then undergo their rigid sports training during off hours.

They are virtually wards of the state, with little time of their own.

Pirates Sweep Pair From Phils To Take Longest Lead Of Season; Braves In 2nd

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Pitching, hitting and bunting. Add 'em up and they give the Pittsburgh Pirates a bulging, 7½-game lead in the National League pennant race.

The battling Bucs rolled to the biggest lead of the season in the majors by sweeping a doubleheader from Philadelphia, 11-2 and 4-3. Tuesday night, while Milwaukee replaced skidding St. Louis in second place. The sweep gave the Pirates five victories in their last six games.

Right-hander Bob Friend, backed by 15 hits, won his 13th in the opener. He allowed seven hits, but walked just one man and put down 17 in a row from the second to the eighth innings.

Bunts Upset Roberts

In the nightcap, Joe Gibbon and winning reliever Roy Face gave up just five hits between them while the Bucs collected a tie-breaking run on a walk in the eighth inning. Three consecutive bunts, by Dick Groat, Bob Skinner and Rocky Nelson, loaded the bases and upset loser Robin Roberts, who then walked Roberto Clemente. It was the only pass Roberts allowed, and gave Clemente five RBIs for the night.

Milwaukee moved up as Hank Aaron drove in both runs and Warren Spahn gained his 21st victory in a 2-1 decision at Cincinnati. The Cardinals, with four boots giving San Francisco four unearned runs, lost their fifth in a row, 7-3. Fourth-place Los Angeles defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-5 in 11 innings.

Win For Face

The Pirates won the opener with a five-run first inning against Jim Owens (3-11). Clemente and Skinner each drove in three runs in the first game.

Bill Virdon's triple and an error brought the Bucs from behind with two runs in the third inning of the nightcap. The Phils made it 3-2 in the fourth, but Skinner doubled and Clemente singled him home to square it again in the sixth. Face (7-6) put it away with two innings of hitless relief.

MOYER WHIPS KID PARET IN WELTER BOUT

By WHITNEY MARTIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Denny Moyer is going to stick around with the welterweights awhile. He wants another shot at the title.

The handsome Portland, Ore., strawberry blond had one chance, but he was only 19 then. He lost to the then-champion Don Jordan in 15 rounds at Portland July 10, 1959.

He was 21 a week ago, and more matured. In fact, Tuesday night he was mature enough to win a split decision over the current champion, Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba, in a 10-round over-weight bout at Madison Square Garden.

Changes Mind

Paret weighed 151 and Moyer 152½, possibly the best fighting weight for each man. Moyer had announced it would be his last fight as a welter, that he was moving up to the middleweights. After the fight he changed his mind.

That there is a chance he will get a title shot seems assured. Teddy Brenner, Garden matchmaker, after conferring with manager Alfaro, Paret's manager, said Benny will keep his date for a title defense against Argentina's Federico Thompson here Oct. 15, and if successful will give Moyer a title shot at the Garden next winter.

He earned it in a bout which started out so badly that the crowd of 4,000 that paid $10,000 at the gate began to boo in the third round. At the end the fans were cheering both fighters, and particularly Moyer.

Different Styles

It was a good, straight puncher fighting a heady fighter against a flurrying battler who concentrated largely on the body. It took Moyer a while to figure out how to meet Paret's breezy style, but once he did he went to work.

The referee and one judge scored it 5-4-1 in favor of Moyer. The other judge had Paret winning 5-4-1. The Associated Press card had Paret in front 5-4-1.

It was Paret's seventh defeat in 42 fights. Moyer has lost only two of 28—to Jordan and Emile Grifith.

MERMAID QUILTS

FOLKESTONE, England (AP)—Blonde Jane Baldassare of New York had breathing trouble off the French coast today and gave up her attempt to swim the English Channel under water.

Swimming through the depths in a 20-foot-long cage, she got only four miles from her starting point at Cap Gris-Nez before calling the enterprise off.

UPPER ADAMS LITTLE LEAGUE

The Arendtsville Pirates, first-half champions, annexed the second-half title by downing the Biglerville Phillies 7-1 at Arendtsville Tuesday evening.

Coach Don Hartzel's titlists scored four runs in the first inning and went on from there to a comparatively easy victory. The lone Phillie run came on a homerun by John Weaver in the second inning.

Score by innings:

Phillies	0	10	0	0	—14
Pirates	4	0	1	0	—7-6

Batteries: Phillies—Brown and Sunbury; Pirates—Funt and James.

The Arendtsville Cardinals tripped the Braves at Bendersville 6-2 with Jeff Tuckey limiting the Braves to but one hit through the first five innings. Donnie Wright led the winners with a pair of singles and a double in four trips to the plate. Larry Heller collected two of the losers' four hits.

Score by innings:

Cardinals	0	0	2	2	—6-5-2
Braves	0	10	0	1	—2-4-6

Batteries: Cardinals—Tuckey and Stover; Braves—Wright and Dixon.

The Bendersville Yankees breezed to a 9-4 victory over the Biglerville Red Sox at Bendersville. Tom Black and Van Clark formed the winning battery.

CAGE GROUPS VIE FOR SPOT ON FIBA BOARD

GREELEY, Colo. (AP)—The National Basketball Committee (NBC) will apply for United States membership in the Federation of International Basketball Assn. in Rome Aug. 24.

If the application is accepted, the NBC would replace the Amateur Athletic Union as the U. S. member of the FIBA. John W. Bunn, editor for the NBC, said today.

The NBC is primarily an organization for establishing rules for amateur basketball in the United States and Canada. Member organizations include the NCAA, AAU, YMCA and high school associations.

Ed Steitz, athletic director at Springfield (Mass.) College will represent the NBC at the FIBA meeting.

The application climaxes action begun by the National Assn. Basketball Coaches last March at San Francisco, Bunn said.

At that time the coaches reviewed negotiations involving a Swedish basketball team that planned to tour the United States. The tour was cancelled because the AAU refused to sanction some of its appearances.

Bunn said the coaches found that their review of the negotiations between the Swedes and AAU revealed much confusion and contradiction.

The coaches adopted a resolution then asking the AAU to take steps "to disassociate the colleges from the AAU in connection with the administration of amateur basketball in this country," Bunn said.

Alaska has 15,335 square miles of inland waters.

THREE BUNTS, BASE ON BALLS WHAM PHILS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Three safe bunts in a row and a base on balls. That's how the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Philadelphia Phillies 4-3 in the second game of a two-night doubleheader Tuesday night. The Bucs took the opener 11-2.

The score was knotted at 3-3 going into the eighth frame of the nightcap. The meat end of Pittsburgh's batting order was up.

Dick Groat opened with a bunt down the third base line. Bob Skinner followed by bunting safely to the mound. Rocky Nelson then loaded the bases by bunting down the third base line.

Then Robin Roberts, understandably flustered, threw four straight balls to Roberto Clemente, forcing in the winning run. It was Roberts' only base on balls in the game.

"I bunted on my own," said Groat after the game. "I wanted to catch these guys by surprise and I did."

Skinner and Nelson were just trying to sacrifice.

"It just so happened that we got the breaks," Groat said. "Both those guys got on. Three bunts like that would shake up any pitcher."

The Pirate shortstop cited innings such as that as the thing that makes Pittsburgh tick.

"We never let up," he said. "I've never seen 25 men with so much desire. We've had it all along. All the boys want to win."

The victories gave Pittsburgh a 7½-game hold on first place in the National League.

But even with so strong a lead, said Groat, the Pirates still aren't a cinch to win the National League pennant.

"It's a long season yet and there are a lot of good teams in the league. We'll just keep playing them one at a time and hope to win as many as we can."

JUNIOR GIRLS TEE OFF TODAY

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The National Junior Girls Golf Tournament moves into the rugged state today as 16 teen-agers tee off for a pair of 18 hole rounds over the Oaks Country Club course.

Match play today will reduce the field to four semifinalists. They will play a single round Thursday, the winners playing an 18-hole final round Friday.

The spotlight was on Judy Rand of Aurora, Ohio, the defending champion. She could become the second girl in the 12-year history of the event to win two titles. Judy Eller of Old Hickory, Tenn., won in 1957 and 1958.

Hard Match

Miss Rand found Tuesday's first round opponent, Joan Gavigan of Waukesha, Wis., difficult but finally came through with a 4 and 2 decision.

Other favorites in the running were Sandra Haynie of Austin, Tex., and Sharon Fladoos of Duquesne, Iowa.

Miss Haynie defeated Eldra Woodman of Wichita, Kan., 8 and 6 and Miss Fladoos conquered Margaret Jones of Fort Mitchell, Ky., 7 and 6.

President Grover Cleveland vetoed a record 414 bills during his first term in office.

ELORDE MEETS GOMES TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Champion Flash Elorde of Manila and Harold Gomes, of Providence, R.I., both eager for more established boxing crowns, fight tonight for the world junior lightweight title in a nationally televised 15-rounder.

The 9 p. m. EST (ABC-TV) fight in Civic Auditorium is a rematch of a March 16 Manila title bout when Elorde dropped Gomes eight times. That battle brought the Filipino southpaw the 130-pound title on a seventh round knockout.

Gomes blamed the 110-degree heat for his performance. Elorde is a slight favorite of oddsmakers for tonight's fight.

SEATON LISTS TIGHTER DUCK HUNTING RULES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Migratory waterfowl hunting regulations announced today prohibit shooting of redhead and canvasback ducks during the 1960-61 season in this country and also tighten the duck rules for the Pacific Flyway.

Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton announced the framework of waterfowl hunting seasons and bag limits within which the states may select hunting dates and fix their own rules.

The outside dates for taking waterfowl and coots, except brant in the Pacific Flyway, will be from Friday, Oct. 7, through Sunday, Jan. 8, 1961, both dates inclusive. These are the same as last year. For brant in the Pacific Flyway the outside dates will be Sunday, Nov. 20, through Tuesday, Jan. 31, 1961.

Other Dates

In Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands the outside dates will be from Tuesday, Nov. 1, through Wednesday, Feb. 15, both inclusive.

The length of the duck season and the size of bag and possession limits are both reduced for the Pacific Flyway while they remain generally the same as last year for the Atlantic, Mississippi and Central flyways.

An optional plan on seasons and bag limits is offered for each flyway. These provide for a possible maximum of 50 shooting days for duck and coots in the Atlantic and Mississippi flyways, a possible maximum of 60 days for those species in the Central Flyway, and a possible maximum of 90 days shooting of ducks, coots and gallinules in the Pacific Flyway. Last year the Pacific Flyway maximum was 94 days.

Basic shooting hours—sunrise to sunset last year, are lengthened one-half hour this year to include the period from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset except on specified season opening dates. On those days, a noon-to-sunset limit applies.

SCHEDULE IS READJUSTED BY SP LOOP

Readjustment of the schedule to make up postponed games and upholding of a protest on a game comprised the bulk of the business transacted at a special meeting of the South Penn Baseball League Tuesday evening at the American Legion home.

The protest involved a game won by Mummasburg over Harney which was played July 24. It involved a call on an interference play and a consequent misinterpretation of the rules. It was decided the game would be replayed on August 28 but only if it was needed to determine position of teams involved in the playoffs.

The complete schedule for the remainder of the season follows: Tonight, Harney at Brushstown, 6:15.

Saturday, Mummasburg at Harneytown.
Sunday, Brushstown at Cashtown (2), Harney at Arendtsville (2), Harneytown at Bonneauville, Mummasburg at Greenmount.

August 28, Greenmount at Harneytown, Arendtsville at Cashtown, and Mummasburg at Harney (if needed).

President Robert Kichten presided at the meeting, which all teams except Cashtown are represented.

Another league meeting will be held Tuesday, August 30, at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home.

Major League Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching — Whitey Ford, Yankee southpaw, working with just two days rest at own request, came through with his second consecutive three-hit, 1-0 victory for series sweep over Orioles.

Hitting — Hobie Landrith, Giants, drove in three runs with four hits, three of them doubles, in five at bats for 7-3 victory over Cards.

Littlestown Little League

The Littlestown Little League All-Stars jumped to a quick lead and were never behind as they topped the Taneytown Little League All-Stars 8-3 Tuesday evening on McSherry Field.

Littlestown went the distance with Louis Orndorff tossing and Neal Leister catching. Leister blasted a home run in the third with the bases empty. He also added a double later in the game. Bruce Crouse lashed a pair of two baggers for two more Littlestown extra base blows.

Brillhart, who entered the game in the third frame for the visitors, blasted a home run for Taneytown's only four-bagger.

The two All-Star teams will clash in Taneytown for their scheduled rematch tonight.

Political Cauldron Boils As Both Candidates Jockey For Election Advantages

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) reported today that Republican conservative leaders from around the nation have been volunteering to do what they can for the GOP national ticket.

Goldwater, head of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said the offers of help were increasing his party's chances for a November victory.

Some leaders in the camp of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, had been afraid the conservatives might sit on their hands during the campaign.

Nixon Campaigner

Nixon returns to campaigning Wednesday with a speech at Greensboro, N.C.

On the other side of the political fence, Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, said he expects Senate passage this week of a minimum wage bill.

The Senate begins voting Wednesday on the measure, but it was still uncertain when a major test on the measure might come. The bill sponsored by Kennedy would increase the present $1 an hour wage minimum to $1.25 in three steps and would extend coverage to an additional five million workers.

Care For Aged

Although the wage measure was formally before the Senate, several hours were spent Monday in debate on a proposal for medical care for the aged. Kennedy and many Democratic members are backing the party's platform plan to put such care under social security coverage.

While the Senate debated these two politically important issues, the House convened Monday after its convention recess.

Rep. William E. Miller (R-NY) introduced a bill including the Democratic platform plank on civil rights. Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said there wasn't time to take up the issue and termed the move an attempt by Republicans "to make political hay."

GOP Busy

Political footnotes: Nixon met Wednesday with actress Helen Hayes, actor George Murphy and other representatives of a Celebrities-for-Nixon Committee. The vice president also confers with a personal advisory council assembled largely by James R. Shepley, on leave from Time magazine to help the GOP campaign. The group is made up of eight college faculty members, a university president, a researcher, three businessmen and a banker.

Nixon's wife, Pat, will make an independent vote-seeking trip in behalf of her husband next Friday. She'll be guest of honor at a reception in Meriden, Conn.

A group of Virginia states rights advocates launched an effort for a conservative party ticket to be headed in the November election by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) and Goldwater. Byrd and Goldwater promptly turned thumb down on the proposal.

South Carolina's Democratic party pledged its presidential electors to the national party ticket. But it freed party members to vote Republican or take other independent action without jeopardy to their standing.

Reds Indict America As Powers Is Minor Figure, Pawn Of U.S. Government

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — Pilot Francis Gary Powers will be just a minor figure at his own spy trial in Moscow.

The Russians will present the American government, which sent him on the spying mission, as the real villain.

Because this is so, Powers, whose U2 plane was brought down last May 1 about 1,200 miles inside Russia, is apt to get off lightly.

Hand Down Indictment

The blueprint for the trial was laid down in 4,000-word indictment of Powers made public by the Russians last Tuesday.

It will provide the Soviets with world-wide anti-American propaganda.

This government won't have much defense except to argue tit-for-tat since the Russians spy on this country.

America Defenseless

Otherwise, the American government rendered itself defenseless against the spying charge. The State Department first denied before the world that Powers was on a spy mission. Then it admitted he was.

After a brief summary of the shooting down of Powers' plane, the indictment goes on for some thousands of words to:

1. Damn the Eisenhower administration for approving the spy flights.

Hit Allies

2. Damn American friends and allies—like Norway, Turkey and Pakistan—for letting this country use bases in their territory for the spy flights.

The indictment singles out President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Vice President Richard M. Nixon for blame.

The indictment says "they attempted to justify violation of U.S.S.R. sovereignty by American aircraft and elevated such violations into a principle of the state policy of the United States."

Blast Nixon

The attack on Nixon was particularly heated.

Even the late secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, who died almost a year before Powers made his flight, was condemned.

The indictment, accusing the United States of aggression by sending Powers into Russia, said the policy of aggression was "repeatedly formulated" by Dulles with his philosophy of "balancing on the brink of war."

Powers Admissions

The rest of the indictment deals with Powers and his alleged admissions of guilt.

It has been suggested the Russians brainwashed Powers into confessing. Maybe he was. That remains to be seen. One thing is sure. He was caught flat-footed. He may have felt he had no alternative to confessing.

The indictment says Powers pleaded guilty to the essence of the charge of spying. If so—and he could hardly do otherwise when this government admitted he was on a spy mission—there wouldn't be much reason for a trial unless the Soviet government, through the Russian lawyer assigned to defend him, argues that he was hardly more than a messenger boy earning a living and that the real culprit was the American government.

That kind of tactic will then provide the Russian prosecutor and defense lawyer with an opportunity to build a case against the Eisenhower administration.

The Belgian town of Virton is famed for its "pate de viande" — or meat loaf.

NSC Starts Move To Cut Vacation Accident Toll

An all-out effort to cut the nation's vacation accident toll by 500 deaths and 20,000 disabling injuries in the remaining weeks of summer was announced today by the National Safety Council.

The council is appealing to business and industry, organized labor, public officials, enforcement agencies and parents to spearhead the campaign.

"This emergency campaign," said Howard Pyle, council president, "is prompted by rising death tolls, the frightening toll over the recent Fourth of July holiday, and the fact that last year more than 5,000 persons lost their lives in traffic and drownings during August and the Labor Day holiday weekend."

More People Driving

"More people are driving more cars more miles this summer than than of painful tragedy.

3. An appeal to parents to set an example to their children of proper attitude toward safety, especially behind the wheel; to insist on driver education in high school for their teen-age sons and daughters, and to constantly stress to their children the social and physical importance of careful, sensible, thoughtful habits in traffic and elsewhere.

4. A request to public officials for more complete and specific information on the hidden causes of summer and holiday accidents.

Traffic Enforcement

5. Encouragement of state and city officials to make even greater efforts to make full use of every available weapon for better traffic enforcement, engineering and education.

The council is asking its 25,000 member companies and plants and governmental agencies to assume leadership in the effort to reduce off-the-job injuries to employees and their families.

Specifically, the companies and agencies are being asked to:

1. Arrange for short on-the-job meetings to discuss off-the-job safety.

2. Hold at least one such series of meetings in August.

Pose Questions

3. Urge every supervisor to call his people together in small groups and develop answers to these questions:

a) What are the specific hazards you and your families face in summer months?

b) What can you and your families do to avoid and eliminate those hazards?

c) Do you want your mayor and governor to instruct their police departments to strictly enforce all public safety laws?

d) Will you and your families support and insist upon such law enforcement?

Companies and agencies also are being asked to relay to mayors and governors the information that their employees are pledged to support of stricter law enforcement.

Safety engineers and insurance advisors of industrial plants and governmental agencies are being urged to provide sound technical recommendations for eliminating hazards employees may not be able to take care of themselves.

"Hundreds of industrial and business organizations," said Pyle, "have demonstrated through their off-the-job safety campaigns for employees that such campaigns bring big reductions in the off-the-job accident toll."

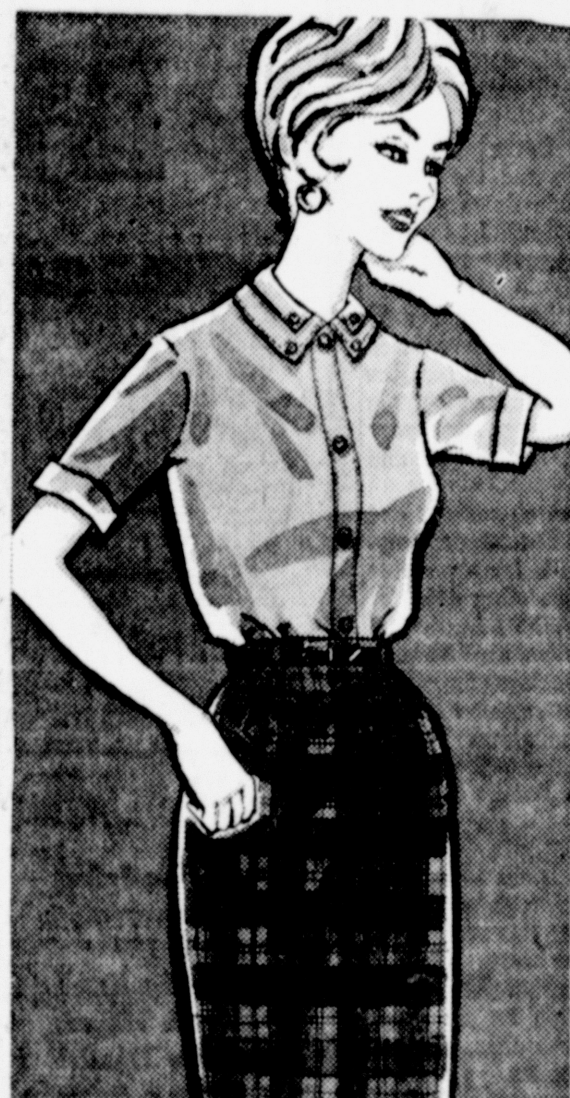

"A number of business concerns — The Bell System, Telephone Companies, for example — as part of their participation in community affairs, provide trained personnel to speak on off-the-job safety at meetings of local organizations and clubs."

"The National Safety Council urges civic clubs and other community groups to call on such companies for help in preventing accidents."

HOPE POWERS MAY GET LESS THAN MAXIMUM

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials expected the Soviets to try to wring the last ounce of propaganda they can from a showpiece trial of Francis Gary Powers, starting today.

Because of this, they held hopes that the American U2 pilot would get off with much less than the maximum penalty under Soviet law—death by shooting.

They figured Powers might even receive the minimum jail term of seven years. There was a possibility that Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in a gesture to show magnanimity, would commute a stiff sentence.

But Washington informants also foresaw the possibility that Khrushchev, in his new get-tough cold war policy, would have Powers executed to "teach a lesson" to the world.

Depending on the outcome of the trial, U.S. authorities were preparing to seek post-trial negotiations with the Soviets for Powers' return.

There seemed to be little ad-

GIVES KENNEDY EVEN CHANCE TO WIN PENNA.

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Associated Press Special Service WASHINGTON (AP)—Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia says he believes Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic candidate for president, has about an even chance to carry Pennsylvania.

Departing from Washington after a conference with Byron R. (Whizzer) White, national chairman of Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson, Dilworth predicted the Democratic ticket will carry Philadelphia on Nov. 8 by a quarter of a million.

Has Campaign Job

"I honestly believe we will win the city by that much," the mayor told a newsman.

White previously had announced appointment of Dilworth as Pennsylvania chairman of Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson.

Dilworth said in an interview that he could not predict at this time what election results will be in the rural, normally Republican areas of upstate Pennsylvania.

"But we'll have enough votes in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton and Erie to even things up," he said.

Recalls 1956

Dilworth said the large margin he expects in Philadelphia is not necessarily enough, however, to counter Republican voting in the rest of Pennsylvania.

"We gave Adlai Stevenson a margin of 160,000 in Philadelphia in 1956 but Eisenhower still carried the state by 600,000," said Dilworth.

Blaze Threatens Lansford Record

LANSFORD, Pa. (AP)—A fire broke out today in the Lansford Record building and spread to a building adjacent to the newspaper office.

The blaze was discovered at 7 a. m. and was still out of control nearly two hours later. No injuries were reported.

Both the evening newspaper office and the adjacent hall building are three story brick structures vance doubt that the court would convict the filer.

Already Decided

It was assumed, too, that the Kremlin had already decided on the sentence.

Moscow has already gone to great lengths to make the most of the downing of Powers' high-flying U2 reconnaissance plane deep inside Soviet territory on May 1. Khrushchev cited Powers' flight in calling off President Eisenhower's visit to the Soviet Union and upsetting the Paris summit conference last May 16.

The advance buildup, plus Soviet refusal to let any American see Powers before the trial, has convinced U.S. officials that Khrushchev aims to squeeze out every bit of propaganda gain in a public show attended by invited observers from around the world.

MAN CLEARED IN SHOOTING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thomas J. McAleer who confessed last week to the accidental shooting six years ago of a night watchman who was his friend has been cleared by the district attorney's office.

Dist. Atty. Victor H. Blanc said Tuesday no charges would be filed. "It was an unfortunate accident," said Blanc.

Blanc added McAleer was cleaning a .22 calibre rifle belonging to John Ritto, 52, when it discharged, killing Ritto. Blanc said McAleer thought the rifle was empty.

Shortly before he died, Ritto told officials he shot himself accidentally. McAleer lived with the secret but it tormented his conscience. He went to an Army psychiatrist and confessed after he was court-martialed for going AWOL rather than handle a rifle.

In the heart of this hard coal mining town.

The cause of the blaze was not known.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—An explosion and fire killed two men on the oil tanker Texaco Delaware Monday night. Crewmen kept the flames from reaching 360,000 gallons of high-test gasoline.

Killed were E. T. Knighton of Newton, Tex., and F. W. Bremer of Port Arthur, Tex., members of the crew.

100 CULTISTS QUIT SHELTER AFTER 40 DAYS

stated cultists who took to underground shelters last month were enjoying sunshine today.

Emerging Tuesday after 42 days in basement refuges, the faithful members of the Full Gospel Assembly were asked by Rev. Richard Meeks, "Did you have a victory this morning?"

"Yes," they shouted. "Praise the Lord!"

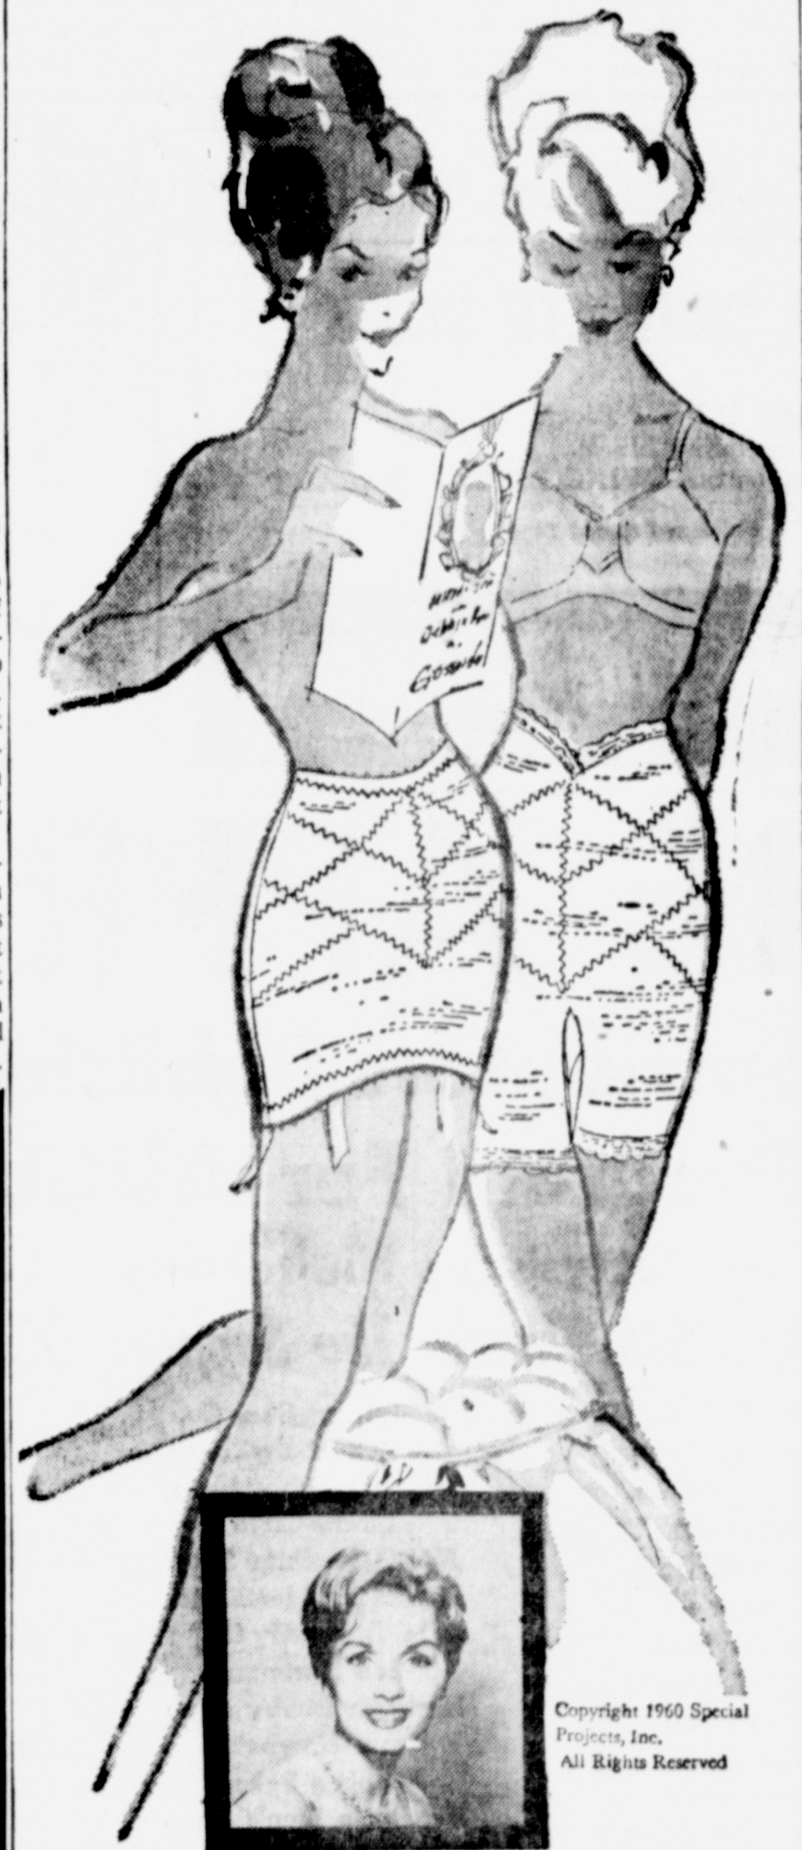

Men, women and children of the sect burrowed into their basements in this southeastern Arizona town last July 4 because of what they termed a divine prophecy of world destruction by nuclear war.

Faith Unshaken

"Civil defense is the Noah's Ark of today," said a spokesman. "Like Noah, we can shelter for 40 days and 40 nights."

More than 35 members failed to match the Biblical mark, however, as they left their refuges in ones and twos.

Failure of the prophecy had no visible effect on the sect's enthusiasm or faith. Its pastor, Ann Wiemer, put it this way: "We believe in the Lord and we thought some things were going to happen, but they didn't."

Woman Charged In Son's Death

WARMINSTER, Pa. (AP)—A young woman has been charged with murder in the death of her 11-week-old son.

Police quoted Mrs. Suzanna I. Bilhardt, 20, as having said she "became frustrated and exasperated" with her son, Ronald, because he was ill and crying and suddenly threw him to the floor.

That was on July 11, police said, and Mrs. Bilhardt didn't tell anyone what she had done. The infant was taken to a hospital by his parents and he died on July 25 of brain injuries.

Mrs. Bilhardt, of Warminster Township, was held on $2,000 bail Monday for the grand jury after she pleaded innocent before Justice of the Peace Claude L. Kern. Her husband, Airman John Bilhardt, 20, is stationed at the Naval Air Station in Johnsville.

WANTS PLEDGE TO BACK AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) is urging congressional support for a modified version of President Eisenhower's Latin American development program.

He put before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a resolution designed to pledge congressional support for whatever future appropriations may be necessary to meet this country's share of the cost of raising living and cultural standards of neighbors to the south.

Fulbright told a reporter he is afraid that Eisenhower's request last week for specific authority to spend 500 million dollars for the purpose might run into trouble in the short session of Congress.

Proposed Efforts
Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon, presenting the Eisenhower plan to the committee Monday, said projects would be designed to benefit the people directly. Proposed efforts include help in land settlement, land use, housing, training in vocational, technical and scientific skills, and improved water and sewage systems.

Eisenhower's proposal calls also for an additional 100 million dollars to help Chile recover from the devastation of earthquakes and floods.

U.S. Spends More On Smokes, Drinking, Gambling Than It Does On Education: Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Does civilization make dogs as well as human beings nervous? Man's best friend now bites more than 600,000 people each year in this country.

America's three most popular hobbies are stamp collecting, fishing, and girl watching.

Pool Hall Dying
The old-time pool hall is dying out fast. But there are still about 225 public billiard parlors in New York City.

Prosperity note: The United States now spends more on gambling, smoking and drinking than it does on education.

Election oddity: In town elections in colonial times people often voted with vegetables. You dropped a kernel of corn in the ballot box to show you were for a candidate, a bean to show you opposed him.

Why Women Are Wiser
Our quotable notables: "Women are wiser than men," said James Stephens, "because they know less and understand more."

SAYS MODERN LIFE BRINGS ITS PROBLEMS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Modern society is creating new hazards that can often lead to emotional disturbances, the president of the American Public Health Association said Tuesday.

"Today's complex social structure creates hazards to emotional health through diverse value factors and status symbols such as social class, drives for success and pressures for conformity," said Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill.

In remarks prepared for the ninth annual State Health Conference, Merrill said that "mental illness seems to come mainly from our psychological environment."

Lists Most Likely
He reported that juvenile delinquents, persons who attempt suicides and pregnant women were those susceptible to mental illness.

Next in order, he added, come children emotionally or physically deprived of parental attention, families on relief and bereaved persons.

Merrill, who also is health director of the state of California, said a recent survey there indicated that the widest range of health problems occurred among persons over 65, with an annual family income of less than $2,000, and among retired persons.

He said more attention should be given to the problem of air pollution. He said that chronic bronchitis is increasing in some areas and "the rate of occurrence seems to be related to air pollution." Lung cancer also may be related to it, he added.

Select Officers
In other developments, Dr. Tom F. Whyne, associate dean of the University of Pennsylvania's School of Medicine, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Public Health Assn. succeeding Robert H. Conn. Conn is chief of the State Health Department's Community Health Section.

Others elected were Wilda Gamery, chief of Allegheny County Health Department's Public Health Nursing Bureau, president-elect; Mrs. E. Jane Petach, executive secretary, Dauphin and Perry Counties Tuberculosis and Health Society, secretary; Dorothy K. Waller, assistant director of the Health Department's Nutrition Division, treasurer, and B. Russell Franklin, chief of Philadelphia Health Department's Training Section, representative on American Public Health Association Governing Council.

IOWA'S GROSS WANTS HOUSE TO HANDLE JOB

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Iowa), irked about the whole idea of the second installment of the present Congress, aims to keep House members' noses to the grindstone and get it over with.

His device is the quorum call rule. Under that regulation any member can question whether a majority of the representatives are present, get a roll call to decide the issue, and force adjournment to the next day if the required 217 cannot be produced.

Unable to do business of any kind with the lack of a quorum on record, the House can't even vote itself a longer recess.

House Plans
That's what the House leadership planned to do Monday when that branch met for the short session, a week after the Senate had convened.

There was no legislative business on hand, so the plan was to dispose of some unanimous consent matters, hear a message from President Eisenhower which had already been presented in the Senate last week, and mark time the rest of this week.

Frequently less than half the members are present but if nobody says anything about it business goes ahead as usual.

Gross Protests
But Gross spoke up Monday. Speaker Sam Rayburn inquired a bit hopefully whether Gross would really insist on his point of order before "a few unanimous consent requests" were dealt with. That would have been the process for ordering a recess.

Gross said he would insist. So the roll call was called, as required but as slowly as a clerk could manage in the hope of a quorum would show up. It didn't—the final count was only 161.

That's why the House had to try again at noon Wednesday.

Daily Plan
And Gross said he would take the same course every day, insisting on a "five-day week at least." He said he might not demand a Saturday meeting.

"I came back here to work and I'm ready to work," Gross told newsmen.

"We will get through if we start Morningstar and Mrs. Annie Brown, of New Windsor, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilhide, Keysville Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Winchester and family, of Perryville, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Winchester's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Fowler, and family, York St.

It was the first time in 15 years the House had had to quit because it couldn't come up with a quorum when a member raised the point.

Blame Blast On Gas Accumulation

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—An accumulation of natural gas in a paint-baking oven may have caused a thundering explosion Monday that killed three men and injured 11, an arson investigator said.

The explosion hit the Rheem Manufacturing Co. plant shortly after noon.

Arson investigator D. A. Whigham said a faulty pilot light may have sparked the blast.

Killed were Jacob Floyd McKnight, 55, production superintendent with 35 years service; George H. Greene, a trouble shooter with 21 years service, and Raymond William Mobley, 36, a machine operator with 14 years service.

KIDNAPPED BOY FOUND DEAD IN AUSSIE SUBURB

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Police announced Tuesday the body of Graeme Thorne, 8, kidnapped Sydney boy, was found in the suburb of Seaford.

Graeme, son of Basil Thorne, disappeared on his way to school July 7.

Australian police have conducted their most extensive search in history for a missing person since Graeme vanished soon after he left his parents' apartment.

Demand Ransom
Ninety minutes after he left a phone caller with a foreign accent demanded 25,000 Australian pounds—$56,000—ransom for his safe return. The caller said if the money was not paid "I'll feed him to the sharks."

The parents sought to pay, but were never able to establish when and where the kidnappers wanted them to make contact.

"All we want is our son back unharmed," Thorne said.

The abduction came shortly after the father won $223,000 in a June lottery.

Broadcast pleas by the parents and provincial authorities of New South Wales to the kidnappers to get in touch again, or at least let Graeme write a letter home, went unanswered.

off by stalling around and taking recesses.

"I was against coming back in the first place, but since we had to come back we ought to get to work."

It was the first time in 15 years the House had had to quit because it couldn't come up with a quorum when a member raised the point.

BELIEVE DEAD MAN IN HOTEL IS EXECUTIVE

NEW YORK (AP) — A man found dead in a hotel room here Monday night with a briefcase containing $25,000 was tentatively identified today as a Philadelphia business executive. Police sought to clear up a number of puzzling circumstances.

The man was believed to be John Bain Janney, president of the Janney Cylinder Co., a Philadelphia machine shop and foundry.

However, when he checked into the Hotel Roosevelt on July 21 he registered as George Brooks of Pittsfield, Mass.

Police said he apparently died of natural causes several days ago but an autopsy was scheduled in an effort to pinpoint the exact cause of death. His age was listed as about 50.

Mystery Remains
Officers said they found papers in the room indicating the man was Janney and listing the Philadelphia address of the Janney firm.

In Philadelphia, a company spokesman said the man apparently was the firm's president.

However, neither the company spokesman nor members of Janney's family would discuss the matter. Janney's home is in Hunt Valley, a Philadelphia suburb.

Conflict Of Interest Laws May Result From Evidence Of Insider Profit Coups

Editor's Note—What, if anything should be done about business executives who use their jobs to make money on the side? In this, the second of two articles, Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, discusses government and business attitudes toward the practice, what the government and some companies do about it, and current suggestions that they do more.

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Reactions to charges of conflict of interest in business cover a wide range: 1. That old American standby: There ought to be a law—with an eye to government policing of business somewhat along the line that Congress takes now and then with officials of federal agencies. 2. Demands by roiled stockholders that companies clean their houses.

Rigid Policing

3. Assurances by some companies that they rigidly police their own rules against the practice. 4. The view that as a matter of personal ethics it can only be left up to the individual executives, who supposedly have been chosen with their incorruptible characters in mind. Rarely do conflict of interest cases in industry involve illegal practices. And some companies say they've profited by inside deals made by their executives or directors.

Government rules against conlict of interest involving federal agencies are usually written into the laws setting them up. Recently Congress has investigated charges that top men in agencies or in the executive branch have accepted gifts, loans or trips from corporations with business before them. Some of these officials have resigned in a shower of publicity.

At the state and local government levels there are various laws regarding conflict of interest. And recently charges of gifts and loans accepted by officials from those doing business with them have been brought into court. The case of Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack in New York attracted much attention.

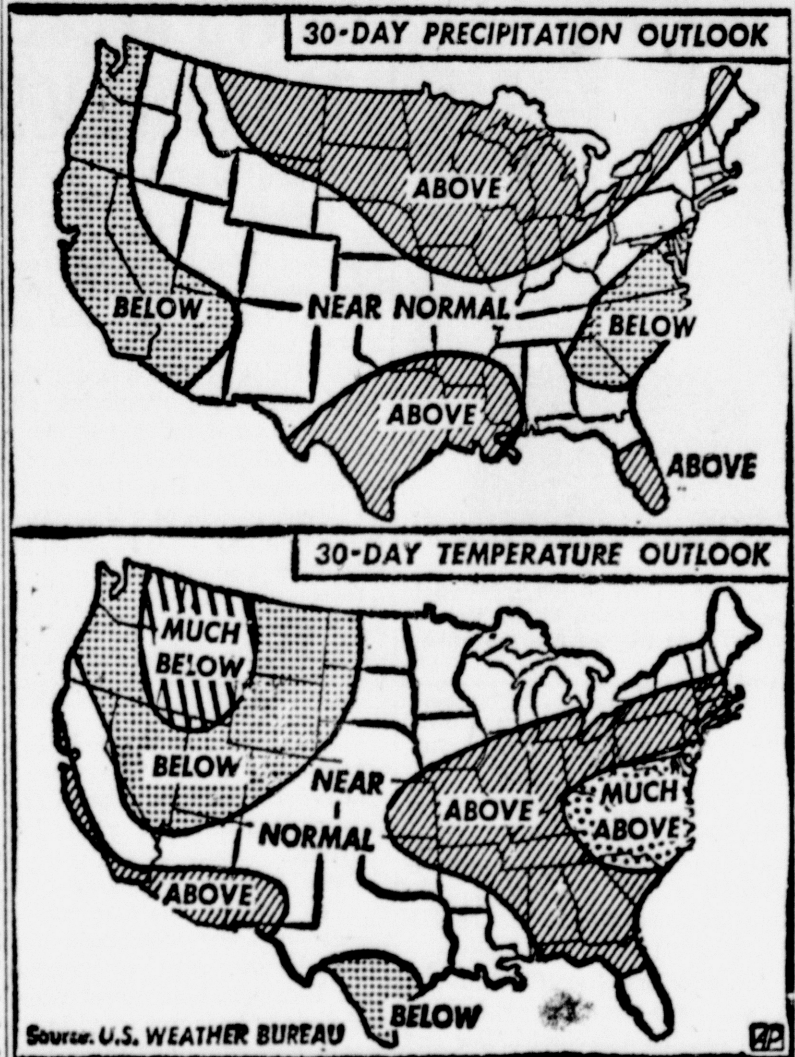

As an ounce of prevention, the Senate usually probes for conflict of interest before confirming presidential appointments. A prime example: Charles E. Wilson agreed to get rid of his General Motors stock before switching from top GM official to secretary of defense, because GM gets defense orders. Other officials have taken similar action to be like Caesar's wife.

SEC Rules

One Securities & Exchange Commission regulation applies to corporate conflict of interest. A director or officer is supposed to report personal interest in dealings of his company with others if the transactions involve $25,000 or more, or 10 per cent or more of total deals of the buying firm.

The charge that Chrysler's ex-president, William C. Newberg, profited from firms supplying the auto company could spark a move to tighten SEC rules, or even to pass some general laws on the subject—if Congress could agree on just when a conflict of interest merits legal attention in the public interest.

Antitrust investigators often look into close relations between suppliers and customers. Up To Company

But until now the matter has been left pretty much to vigilant directors and auditors or to belligerent stockholders—or to exposures by disgruntled employees, or former employees cut off at the pockets.

A number of companies see nothing wrong in their executives purchasing stock in companies buying from them or selling to them as long as the stock is listed on an exchange—as apart from small, unlisted companies that could be largely under control of the executives themselves.

And some point out that business ethics often are hard to define and are subject to change from generation to generation. Many things that grandfather did openly and with a free conscience are now illegal business procedures.

Industrial leaders contend that the ethics of the majority of executives aren't in question, only a few.

The motto "In God We Trust" first appeared on U. S. coins in 1864.

SOUND ALIKES CAUSE TRADERS SOME TROUBLE

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Picking your way through the maze of corporate names that sound alike can sometimes trip you if you're a novice.

As the number of companies in the United States grows each year, the sound-alikes multiply. And the postwar trend to diversification of products is the opposite of helpful.

Most persons have to stop and think to tie the right end product to the various glass companies with the proper nouns, Libbey, Illinois, Owens, Corning, Ford, in different combinations.

Oil Companies
Even knowledgeable stock traders might stumble over the Ohio Oil Co. and Standard Oil Co. (Ohio). And many gasoline buyers get mixed up between all the other Standard Oils—Jersey, California, Indiana, Louisiana, Kentucky, Texas. Some Standards of old have telescoped their names. Example: Socony Mobil—the Socony was once Standard Oil Co. of New York.

The various Colas can trip the unwary—Coca, Pepsi and Royal Crown. How about U.S. Gypsum and National Gypsum, American Can and Continental Can, General Foods and General Mills? Some persons confuse B. F. Goodrich and Goodyear, especially as both rubber companies are in Akron, Ohio.

Glass Outfits

But it's another Ohio City, Toledo, where confusion could really reign in the post office and the telephone office, for three top glass companies are there. Among them, in varying combinations, they sport all five of those names—Corning, Ford, Illinois, Libbey, and Owens—with all three sharing Owens.

Each makes glass, but also separate and noncompeting end products. Out-of-towners can get pretty mixed up between Owens-Illinois, Libbey-Owens-Ford, and Owens-Corning.

Bottling Firm

The Owens shared by all three comes from Michael J. Owens, who worked for Edward Drummond Libbey, and devised the first automatic glass bottle making machine. The bottle company became Owens-Illinois in 1929. It still makes glass containers, but also packages of plastic and paper, and glassware for industrial, electronic and scientific use.

The two men also formed the Libbey-Owens Flat Glass Co. which in 1930 merged with another firm to become Libbey-Owens-Ford. It makes flat glass for buildings, autos, and so on.

Owens-Illinois and Corning Glass Works of New York formed the Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. in 1938 to produce glass fibers and the many products from it.

There are any number of companies with Ford, Owens, Illinois or Libbey as first names, but having no connection with the glass companies.

And way out, if you're really confused, is Libby, McNeill & Libby, known for its canned and frozen foods.

MUSSELMAN REUNION

Approximately 60 persons attended the 36th annual Musselman reunion which was held at the Salem Lutheran Church picnic grounds, near Dover, York County, Saturday, Vice President Weir Musselman, Mechanicsburg, conducted the devotional period followed by group singing directed by Mrs. John R. Fehring, Goshen, Ind. The Musselman sisters' quartet comprising Mrs. Arthur Musselman, Mrs. John Fehring, Misses Esther and Ruthanna Musselman, daughter and daughters-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Z. Musselman, Gettysburg R. 3, presented several selections.

The following officers were elected: President, Adriel Keener, Hagerstown R. 4; vice president, Weir Musselman, Mechanicsburg; recording secretary, Miss Carolyn Musselman, Gettysburg R. 3; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary B. Weikert, Fairfield, and treasurer, Clarence M. Weikert, Gettysburg.

It has not been decided where the reunion will be held next year.

Powers' Family Believes Lawyer Will Do His Best

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Francis Gary Powers' family says it is confident the U2 pilot's Soviet lawyer will do his best to help the flier.

Powers, whose reconnaissance jet was brought down 1,200 miles inside the Soviet Union May 1, goes on trial on espionage charges today. The Soviets say he has admitted his guilt; the penalty for espionage ranges from seven years to death.

The Soviet lawyer who will defend Powers is Mikhail Ilich Griniov, presiding officer of the Judicial Council, a Soviet version of the legal aid societies in America.

Pleased With Lawyer

After an initial conference with Griniov Monday the pilot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Powers of Pound, Va., said: "We have confidence he will do all possible to help our son."

Alexander W. Parker, Richmond, Va., lawyer who is with the pilot's wife, Barbara, said the meeting was "highly satisfactory."

"Everybody was impressed by his (Griniov's) sincerity, his apparent ability and frankness. We were favorably impressed with him and his desire to cooperate. He has a heavy job, a great job, and he is going to give the best he has got."

"Executive Session"

Parker told newsmen the conference was in "executive session" and all had agreed nothing would be disclosed. Parker said he and two other Virginia lawyers present did not raise any questions about assisting at the trial. Normally foreign lawyers are not permitted to take part in trials in the Soviet Union.

Griniov is a small, pleasant-faced man with thinning, close-cropped gray hair and a tiny beard. He is said to have handled many criminal cases in the Soviet Union and was one of the Soviet prosecutors at the Nuremberg war crimes trials. So was Powers' chief prosecutor, Roman A. Rudenko.

Griniov has seen Powers several times and had a long session with him Monday before he met the family.

Seek Meeting With Khrushchev

Parker has put in a request with Intourist, the official Soviet tourist agency, for an interview between Barbara Powers and Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The pilot's father also hoped to make a plea in person to the Soviet premier.

There was no indication, however, that Khrushchev would receive any of the family. The Soviets have refused to let the family see Powers before the trial, and have also kept him incommunicado from the U.S. embassy.

There is some evidence that Barbara Powers does not get along well with her in-laws. She and they arrived by separate planes with separate lawyers and separate doctors, and they go to appointments in separate automobiles. Neither has spoken publicly of any ill feeling, but members of the group around them have indicated there is some friction.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP)—Mark Barron, 55, Associated Press drama critic and former war correspondent and playwright, died Monday. He had suffered from heart trouble and complications for several years. Barron had been with The AP for 29 years as a reporter, drama critic, war correspondent, feature and New York city editor. He was born in Waco, Tex.

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Bertha Howell Mailly, 91, former secretary and manager of New York's Rand School of Social Science, died Sunday after a long illness. She was the widow of William Mailly, pioneer Socialist, who died in 1912.

Actor Mischa Auer was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, now known as Leningrad.

"ARTIFICIAL" INSEMINATION ON INCREASE, JOURNAL SAYS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some 100 babies are born in England each year—the result of artificial insemination with the seed of a donor from outside the marriage, reports Lancet, a British medical journal.

The practice apparently has doubled in England in the past ten years and in the United States apparently is still more widespread, the report states.

It is invoked in childless marriages where the husband is sterile or suffers from some hereditary disease that would endanger the life of children. The British report suggested laws should cover such cases.

A special committee did not favor the practice for unmarried women, widows or separated marriages, nor for married women without the consent of the husband. The children of such cases

BOYLE WEIGHS HIS LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENTS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Your life is measured not only by what you've done—but by what you haven't done.

What kind of a person are you really? Your achievements, if any, speak for themselves. But what about all the things you didn't achieve, perhaps because you never had a chance to—or perhaps because they didn't interest you?

If you sit down some evening and write out a list of all the things you haven't done, you might learn some surprising facts about yourself. At least it would afford you an unusual portrait of your life up to now—and give you a look at yourself from a different angle.

Catalogue Of "Nevers"

Here's one man's catalogue of "nevers" as he nears the half-century mark:

Never learned to drive a car or tie a bow tie.

should be considered legitimate by the law, the committee said.

British researchers find a danger of anemia for some sufferers of rheumatoid arthritis who rely on aspirin for treatment. Aspirin has serious and unpredictable disadvantages in a minority of cases says a British Medical Journal report.

Small amounts of blood are lost through bleeding in the stomach and intestines by some persons showing that anemia is sometimes due to aspirin sensitivity, the researchers from London's Ham-mersmith Hospital indicate.

Aspirin Help

Aspirin may be an inexpensive aid in relieving symptoms of diabetes and in lowering blood cholesterol, reports an article in the New Physician, journal of the Student American Medical Assn.

Taken in frequent doses it spurs the body's hormone system and is known to reduce blood sugar, as well as its common uses in reducing fever and pain.

Pay Now, Pull Later

A prepaid dental care plan for the children of labor union members has been labeled a success by all parties concerned, reports the Journal of the American Dental Assn.

Some 2,300 children of members, shoremen's and Warehousemen's Union-Pacific Maritime Assn. took part in the plan during the past three years.

The Oregon State Dental Assn. operated the plan for the union. Dentists were apprehensive at first. But in a poll, they indicate that the plan is a great success, and should be broadened and extended to other unions.

Never wore a pair of Bermuda shorts.

Never Shot

Never shot a man, a maid or a robin.

Never bought a house, a share of oil or uranium stock, or a carton of cigarettes.

Never had an appendectomy—or asked for one.

No Interviews

Never been in a jail except to visit friends.

Never planted a tree or a flower, or harvested any crop—except a few mild wild oats.

Never drank bourbon, rye, scotch, gin, vodka or absinthe—not out of a milk bottle, anyway.

Never interviewed Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Bernard Baruch, Winston Churchill, Queen Marie of Romania, Eric Johnson, Carl Sandburg, Jayne Mansfield or Harold Stassen.

Never attended a social event that required the wearing of white tie and tails—and never hopes to.

Never took a spanking as a child himself—or gave one later to his own child—without feeling that, in the end, it was painful.

Weight Problem

Never able to keep weight down after getting first job enabling him to eat three meals a day.

Never wrote the great American novel—but only because couldn't decide on its title.

Never put wife on budget—because she got there with own budget first.
